ASSESSMENT and EVALUATION METHODS for ASSIGNMENTS

Assessment will be done in line with the assessment methods of this course, which is indicated in the course syllabus. Students should attend to one mid-term exam. The assignments of the students and the presentations (working papers) will be assessed as the “Final exam” of this course.

CONTENT AND STYLE GUIDELINES FOR THE ASSIGNMENT (WORKING PAPER)

1. Students will prepare a “working paper” as a group work (the groups should have -3- members). All students are responsible for providing active participation of their own group members. Any excuse related with the working group members (late submission or problems about the quality of the working papers) will not be accepted.
2. All enrolled students should follow working paper guide while preparing their working papers. The guide is available at: <http://euc.yasar.edu.tr/wp-content/uploads/2013/02/working-paper-guide.pdf> and also at course web site.
3. Guidance for the preparation of these working papers will be provided during the course hours.
4. Assignments should be submitted by the deadlines indicated in the working paper guide. Any late submissions will not be tolerated and accepted. Please note that there are two submission deadlines (interim and final) in the working paper schedule.
5. Working papers should be presented in the classroom according to the schedule. If a working paper is not presented, it will not be graded.
